BEING BRILL AT WHEELER - TEACHING CHILDREN TO BE RESPECTFUL, RESPONSIBLE
AND RESILIENT IN LIFE AND LEARNING

Newsletter – Friday 3rd May 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Baby News !

Congratulations to Miss Parish and her partner who have welcomed the safe arrival of beautiful baby boy called 'Roman'. I am sure you will join with us in wishing them all the very best wishes and happy times ahead as a family.

Ice Lolly and Bun Sale - Friday 10th May

Mrs Richardson and her gardening gang will be selling ice lollies and buns on the playground after school next Friday to raise money for some new gardening equipment. Buns and lollies will be 50p each and will on a first come first served basis.

Brave- Green and Blue Base

We have been very proud of our children in Green and Blue Base this week as they have started their new routine in the mornings when entering school. They are really growing up and showing us all that they are nearly ready for Yr 1.

Pirate Day

Year 2 had a fantastic Pirate themed day this week and pirate picnic. Thank you to the parents for the huge efforts with the costumes.

Cycle Rally - Red, Blue and Green Base

A reminder that our annual Cycle Rally or 'Tour De Wheeler' will take place next Thursday 9th May. The morning Red Base children will be taking part at 11:00am and parents are welcome to join us. The afternoons children and Blue and Green Base will be taking part in the afternoon at 2:15pm .

Year 1 Phonic Screening Meeting

We will be holding an information event for all parents in Year 1 to find out more about the Phonic Screening Tests. The meeting will be at 2:45pm on Thursday 9th May. Mrs Day and Miss Macadam will look forward to seeing you there and answering any of your questions.

Attendance This week our attendance as a school is: 96.34% which is above that expected
